A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

© T. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

I have been speaking and writing about traveling this Lent. I am reading a wonderful book called “Roman Pilgrimage: The Station Churches” by George Weigel. He talks about the importance of pilgrimages in Christian life. Another book that is an allegory about our journey through life is a book that was written in the 17th century and is still popular today. John Bunyon wrote the Protestant classic “Pilgrim’s Progress.” At that time there was an anonymously written play called “Everyman”; it was part of the High School reading list when I was younger. Bunyon wrote a work concerning an “Everyman” type of character whose name is Christian. He has a wife, Prudence, and two children Obstinate and Pliable. His home town is called the City of Destruction. Christian is weighed down and saddened by reading a book (the Bible) that talks about the knowledge of his sins. This burden can take him to a place called Tophet (hell). He reads that he has a choice, and if he seeks deliverance of his sins he can go to a place called Mt. Zion.

Throughout his journey he meets people with very obvious names like Evangelist, who shows him the way to the heavenly city. He then meets different categories of people like Formalist, Hypocrisy, Piety, and Discretion. He also meets two giants, Pope and Pagan. (This is an obvious reflection on the typical Protestant views about Catholicism.) Christian’s path is strewn with all sorts of obstacles and he makes all sorts of detours on his journey to heaven. It’s an obvious allegory on how we journey through life.

Respect for All Life

Positive Sacrifice

“Love your neighbor as yourself. I am the Lord.”

~Leviticus 19:18

Last week, I happened to tune in to a conference on C-Span. The first speaker I heard was Erika Harold, Miss America 2003, from Champaign, IL. During her presentation, Erika mentioned that she had come to appreciate the positive role that faith-based service groups can have in society. She joined the prison fellowship ministry of the late Chuck Colson, where people of faith brought a message of hope into prisons. On one occasion, Erika was asked to speak at a women’s prison segregated housing unit, where inmates are incarcerated 23 hours per day. Visitors wore flak jackets, since they were warned that isolation causes these prisoners to scream expletives and threaten visitors. Though fearful and hesitant, Erika believed that faith compelled her to go ahead. She shared with the inmates the message of God’s love and redemption. In the end, the women inmates thanked her for coming and said “God bless you.”

During Lent, we are encouraged to practice self-denial and to make sacrifices. Yet, shouldn’t we also think in terms of engage in positive, even risky, actions to truly serve the needs of others? But how? Think about it.

Lord, let your command of love free us from the prejudices that distract us. Open our eyes to see every human person as our neighbor and to act accordingly.

Need something for a birthday, or for an Easter Basket?

Manna Order Forms are Available

Here is how Manna works: you complete the order form (both sides), and return it with your payment by 11:00 am, March 30. (Checks are made payable to Christ the Servant.) On April 5/6, you pick up your order! Orders placed during this sale will be back in time for Easter shopping.

Purchase grocery store gift cards, and take them to the store to purchase hams for our hungry neighbors. Bring them to the church on Palm Sunday (sorry, Sunday only please, because we don’t have refrigeration available.) They will be taken to the West Suburban Food Pantry.

VOTER INFORMATION

“The direct and intentional destruction of innocent human life from the moment of conception until natural death is always wrong and is not just one issue among many. It must always be opposed.”

National Committee of Catholic Bishops, 2007

Since it is difficult for the average citizen to find accurate information about how the many candidates stand on the life issues, Illinois Citizens for Life has prepared non-partisan voter information based on surveys, public statements, and/or voting records. This guide is not an endorsement and may not be used to advance the candidacy of any individual. Go to www.icl-life.com. Please read the directions carefully. You must know your own districts. If you don’t have a current voter registration card with those district numbers, you can call your County Board of Election Commission or call the ICL office at 630-852-5448. You can print this information out and take it into the voting booth with you. Please take your responsibility to vote very seriously and pray about your decision.

Many Thanks!

We thank the people who helped set up our Lenten décor—Bill K and Pat S. Bill went "above and beyond" and cleaned the windows behind the altar, even working on the outside in a very small window of nice weather to be working outside.

Do you have some time and would also like to help with décor? Please call Donna M to talk about what you would like to do to help.

LENTEEN REGULATIONS

1. Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.
2. Everyone over 18 years of age and under 59 years of age is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
3. On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.
4. To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.
5. Lent is the principal season of penance in the Church year. All of the faithful are strongly urged to develop and follow a program of voluntary self-denial (in addition to following the Lenten regulations), serious prayer, and a performance of works of charity and mercy.
