Our Parish ~ Our Spiritual Home

As many of you have figured out, I like history, especially local history. Bishop Siegel, who shares a similar interest, approached me when he was here celebrating the sacrament of confirmation. We have a book in the sacristy called the ordo which gives directions on what prayers to say at mass and readings, feast days, etc. As a part of that ordo there is a necrology. The Necrology is a list of our deceased priests. Bishop Siegel thought it may be a good thing to include the obituary, or stories or memories of the deceased priests from our diocese. The first one I shared was our founding pastor, Fr. Jim Ratigan. Today I would like to share information about someone many of the old timers may know. It's Fr. Ed Gregory. Fr. Gregory was the founder of St. Dominic's Parish in Bolingbrook.

Rev. Frank K. Vitus

Rev. Edmund Gregory
Oct. 30, 1922 - June 13, 1980

Fr. Edmund Gregory, 58, a native of Joliet and founding pastor of St. Dominic's Parish in Bolingbrook was found dead on Saturday at St. Ambrose rectory in Crest Hill. He had been in residence there in recent months. Fr. Gregory developed a heart condition in 1977 while serving as pastor at St. Joseph Parish in Manteno. As a result he resigned his pastorate the following June. Subsequently he was in residency in St. Patrick Church in Joliet, and later in Crest Hill. Known through the diocese as a kind hearted, considerate individual, he over extended himself to be of help to other priests. He visited many parishes in recent months offering Masses to lighten the schedule of other priests. He was a regular celebrant of Mass at the Guardian Angel Home in Joliet. As recently as last Sunday he was at the Maternity BVM parish picnic in Bourbonnais.

Fr. Gregory was ordained a priest in May 1949, in the first ordination class in the new Diocese of Joliet. His first assignment took him to St. Mary Nativity Parish in Joliet where he spent three years. He also served at St. Petronille in Glen Ellyn. His first pastorate came when he was placed in charge of St. Mary Parish in Reddick in October of 1957. He remained for three years also serving at St. Lawrence O'Toole parish in Essex. At one time he was pastor of Immaculate Conception Parish in Braidwood. In 1960 he was assigned to be the founding pastor at St. Dominic Parish in Bolingbrook. Nine years later he was sent to St. Joseph Parish in Manteno.

Father was educated in the Joliet schools system. He studied for the priesthood at St. Procopius in Lisle and Kenrick Seminary in St. Louis, MO. At one time he was president of the Manteno Rotary club. He served as dean of Kankakee-Grundy deanery and was a member of the Priests Senate, the Diocesan Consultant. He was also a fourth degree Knights of Columbus and chaplain of the Joliet KSKJ, a Slovenian organization. He was buried at St. Joseph Parish in Joliet.

Planting the Seeds of Faith

Faith is an integral part of our lives; it is interwoven into everything we do. Summer is a great time to refocus on faith, fellowship and fun.

The way we live our daily lives communicates our faith to the world around us. The choices we make, where we spend our time, what we value – all reflect our commitment to the Christian life. Sometimes we are called to explain lovingly what we believe or speak up on behalf of the poor and vulnerable. Summertime – with its slower pace and (usually) beautiful weather – offers us ample opportunities to share our faith with our friends, family and community. Bring a flower to an elderly person in your neighborhood or share a glass of lemonade with a struggling friend. God's love surrounds us!

God bless, Heidi Busse (Our Sunday Visitor)

LITURGICAL DANCE

Are you interested in serving and praising our Lord in a special way?

Here is a special opportunity for 6th, 7th and 8th grade girls to participate as liturgical dancers for our parish's 25th anniversary celebration. If you are interested please come to an informational session on Monday, July 21 at 7 pm in the church. We will be involved in the kickoff masses for our 25th year the weekend of September 20/21, 2014. If you have questions, please call Donna C.

SAVE THE DATE!

AUGUST 16th 8 am-noon

Blood Donors and Volunteers Needed!

Even if you can't donate blood at the blood drive, you could help welcome people as they arrive to register, or help serve refreshments to those who have donated. Contact Kathy V to cover a shift. Two or three helpers would be good to have from 8-10 am, and one or two helpers for 10am-noon.

CTS Roundup and Annual Picnic August 10

Great plans are being made for our annual parish picnic, which will take place here at CTS on Sunday, August 10, beginning at 1:00 pm.

The theme is western—the CTS Roundup! Wear your favorite western-style clothing, and, if you or anyone you know can call a square dance, please contact Rosada H.

Like previous years, this will be an event of fun for the whole family. Food to go with the theme (exact menu to be determined) will be available for purchase, along with soft drinks and water. Free popcorn is planned. Folding chairs will be at the tables, and you are welcome to bring your own comfortable lawn chairs and specialty beverages of your choice.

New this year is a community service project in conjunction with the picnic theme. Heifer International was chosen as a service component to our Annual Picnic as a symbol of Christ the Servant's long-standing virtue of helping people in need while enjoying our own parish community. Watch out for critters on the lawn!

Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal 2014: "Trust in the Father's Care"

The Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) provides funding for the ministries and services offered by the Diocese of Joliet. This annual campaign provides financial support for the education of seminarians, scholarships for Catholic Schools, the work of Catholic Charities and many more of the ministries and services provided by our Diocese.

Those who have contributed to the CMAA in the past but have not done so yet in 2014 have or will soon receive a letter asking them to make a gift in support of the many good works underwritten by the CMAA. We encourage our parishioners to make a generous gift. Also, we remind those of you that have already pledged your support, to continue to make your pledge payments. After our parish reaches its goal in the amount paid, 60% of any additional funds received are returned to the parish to help with our needs.

Respect for All Life

Discipline and Holiness

Jesus said: "I have come that you may have life and have it to the fullest."

~ John 10:10

Discipline is the path that leads to the "fullness of life."
There are 4 major aspects of the human person: physical, emotional, intellectual, and spiritual. When we eat well, exercise often, and sleep regularly, we feel more fully alive physically. When we love, when we give priority to the significant relationships in our lives, when we give of ourselves to help others in their journey, we feel more fully alive emotionally. When we study our vision of ourselves and God, the world expands, and we feel more fully alive intellectually. When we take time each day to come before God in prayer openly and honestly, we experience life more fully spiritually. All of these life-giving endeavors require discipline. When we embrace a life of discipline, we thrive, and we are most fully alive.

In every age, the Church experiences problems and difficulties. Personal holiness is the answer to every problem. Holiness is simply the application of the values, principles, and spirit of the Gospel to the circumstances of everyday life. Holiness is the goal of the Christian life. It's a dynamic collaboration between God and man that brings delight to God. It is surrendering to the will of God. Holiness is for everyone; NOT just a select few. It is the delight and the desire of God, and the source of your happiness.

with Passion and Purpose*, by Matthew Kelly

Widowed Men & Women

Recovering from your loss takes time. Probably longer than you imagined. Hope and joy do return eventually. Attend the retreat/workshop designed to help you deal with your loss while still treasuring
your memories.

Joyful Again!

A 2-day program will be held at:

- Holy Family Parish, July 26 & 27th (near Barrington & Palatine Rds.)
- Mary Queen of Heaven Parish
on August 2 & 3, Elmhurst

To register or get more info, call Joyful Again
Widowed Ministry Program 708-354-7211.

Note that we are in need of Ministers of the Altar to serve at the 8:30 and 10:00 am masses next week. Active or Substitute teams may offer to serve. New people are invited to join this ministry. It's great for a family with children eager to "do something" at mass. Duties involve arriving about 10 minutes before mass begins, serve as Crossbearer, set the altar at the Presentation of the Gifts, help the priest accept the gifts, pour water over Father's fingers, and help clear the altar after communion.. We also need a Host Team person(s) to help at the 8:30 and 10:00. Call Corinne at 630-910-0770 or email ctsoffice@ctswoodridge.org for information.
