November 16, 2014 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Friends,

First of all, Thank You! to all those who have responded to our Stewardship of Treasure renewal initiative. And I would ask all those who have not yet made a response to prayerfully consider what your response will be.

Christ the Servant Parish
1990-2015

Living a Giving Life

God gifts us with every good thing, and invites us to use those gifts to reap the harvest of the Kingdom of God in our lives. As we approach the end of our liturgical year, it is time for an accounting.

Today in the gospel we hear of how incredibly affirming God is of us; we are empowered with God's own life and Spirit. Jesus uses a parable to describe it: "A man went on a journey, called in his servants and entrusted all his possessions to them."

This is about us, God believes in us, just as any mother or father believes in their children and affirm and empower them to be all that they can be. This is the role of any authority as a life giver: to see that the beautiful bundle of potentiality—their children—develop to their fullest, greatest potential.

That is what God does with us, making us co-authors, co-creators with God of not only our physical lives, but also of all creation and human potential. And like any good parent, God expects us to use our gifts well. So we hear in the gospel parable of an accounting of how the stewards used those gifts.

We are accountable; God has give each of us wonderful and varied gifts; God expects, affirms, and empowers us to use and develop our gifts, not for our own vain glory, but for the common good, that the glory of God might be revealed in us!

We are encouraged not to be timid about our gifts, but to be wise and take risks to grow the gifts into something wonderful. That's what creation is all about, that's what our lives are all about. We are told in a way, "use it or lose it!"

That's how it is with God's gifts, love only exists if you give it away! May God make us always generous, joyful, compassionate lovers. What you have received as a gift, give as a gift!

In Christ's love, Fr. Jael

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT
WORKING ON THE MARGINS

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has come to the aid of communities nationwide for over 40 years in an effort to eradicate poverty. During World Youth Day, July 25, 2013, Pope Francis told us to “never tire of working for a more just world, marked by greater solidarity.” CCHD puts these words into action by funding housing, education, and the development of job opportunities.

Projects supported by CCHD move beyond providing for basic needs. They work to build healthy, sustainable futures for communities. Ten years ago, Boston’s Haley House began offering bakery training at the request of a few regular guests at the soup kitchen. Experiencing a tremendous demand, Haley House created a six-month course that includes customer relations and basic business principles. Haley House currently has 70 trainees who have completed the program and are now employed in the Boston area.

Haley House also runs cooking classes for at-risk teens and a Transitional Employment Program that provides holistic, individual support to men and women re-entering the community after incarceration. Haley House creates a strong local economy by building human relationships; it carries on Christ’s mission “to bring glad tidings to the poor . . . liberty to captives . . . sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free” (Lk 4:18).

This Collection is the primary source of funding for CCHD’s anti-poverty grants and education programs. Collection funds offer new hope each year to those living in poverty throughout the United States. And remember, 25 percent of the Collection’s proceeds stays here in our diocese to fight poverty in our communities and defend the dignity of our neighbors. Help us defend human dignity and show Christ’s charity to those in need.

For more information about the Collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development and the groups it funds, please visit www.povertyusa.org.

God bless you,

Most Reverend R. Daniel Conlon, Bishop of Joliet

Respect for All Life

The Case for Marriage

Ryan T. Anderson, defender of traditional marriage, stated: "During the Supreme Court consideration of the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA) in 2013, Just Mito framed the debate as a contest between the conjugal view (a comprehensive, exclusive, permanent union that is ordered for producing new life) and consent-based view (a commitment marked by emotional union)." Anderson argued the conjugal: "The State cares about marriage because of its connection with children and its ability to unite children with their mother and father. The question for law and culture is whether a father will be involved in the life of that child, and, if so, for how long. Marriage, rightly understood, brings together the two halves of humanity (Male and female) in a one to one relationship. Husband and wife pledge to each other to be faithful by vows of permanence and exclusivity. Marriage provides children with a relationship with the man and the woman who made them. Whatever the law or culture may say, we must commit now to witness to the truths about marriage: that men and women are distinct and complementary, that it takes a man and a woman to bring a child into the world, and that children deserve a chance to grow up with a mom and a dad...If we speak with truth and love, we CANNOT fail."

~Ryan T. Anderson: "Marriage: Where Do We Go From Here," Catholic Citizens of Illinois annual dinner, Sept. 24, 2014

On behalf of the Peace and Social Justice Committee, thank you to all the parishioners who so warmly welcomed Fr. Ron Chochol, a Catholic Relief Services Global Fellow this past weekend. He was very pleased with our openness to his message about "connections" with our brothers and sisters around the globe.

CASH 4 FOOD Results: Many thanks to all who donated to the recent Cash4Food drive. We donated a total of $615 and almost 200 pounds of paper goods and foods. Thank you especially to the First Grade Religious Formation Class for their cash donation and great example of giving to our neighbors in need.

THANKSGIVING DINNERS

Each year we ask parishioners to help provide a Thanksgiving meal for our neighbors in need. The West Suburban Community Food Pantry supplies us with information about the families assigned to us, and parishioners sign up to provide a turkey or the fixings for a Thanksgiving meal. Sign up now!

Please also know that, if we cover the needs of the assigned families, you can plan to help at Christmastime. We expect to be helping 50 families at Christmas, with dinners, a gift card to purchase entrée (purchase through Manna—forms available in the narthex!), and gifts for children and seniors.

Undy Sunday – A Great Success!

Dear Friends:

On behalf of Catholic Charities, Diocese of Joliet I would like to thank you for participating in Undy Sunday. This year over 40 parishes, schools, and organizations collected an overwhelming amount of underwear, socks, undershirts, and diapers. Many of us take things like underwear for granted. Most of our clients don't have that luxury, but because of your generosity it will be one less thing that they have to worry about.

Thank you for your support of Catholic Charities and the work we do. May God continue to bless you and your family with every good thing.

Sincerely, Glenn Van Cura, Executive Director
Catholic Charities, Diocese of Joliet
