Our Parish ~ Our Spiritual Home

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ June 21, 2015

Dear Friends, Brothers and Sisters,

“The love of Christ impels us...” St. Paul says in the second reading today, and it does! The love of Christ impels, moves, catapults us through time and space, and isn't it a great ride!

It is wonderful, and it has been wonderful to be with you here at Christ the Servant these past ten months. This is my last weekend with you as your Pastor Administrator. It has been my joy, privilege, and honor to serve and be with you.

You are a great people; this is indeed a good parish! Know that, feel it in your bones, individually and corporately. God has called and chosen you; you are The People of God! You belong to God and God belongs to you.

It has been such a grace for me to celebrate and renew that bond of God's covenant love with you at each and every Eucharist. We are bonded in the Body of Christ; we are not separate and can never be; we are always one in the Body of Christ, wherever we may be. Individuated we may be, but never separate.

As St. Paul says, “we live no longer for ourselves but for Christ.” He tells us we are not limited by the “flesh”, of historical limits of time and space. He says we now know Christ in a new way. We come to know Jesus Christ in each other. That has been my experience here. I have come to know and experience Jesus with you in a whole new way.

“Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.”

We come to know the abiding Presence of Jesus, Emmanuel: “God with us”! Jesus, with us in the boat, rebukes the wind, and says to the turbulent seas, “Quiet! Be still!” And know that I AM God.

The disciples, and we, say: “Who is this that even the wind and the sea obey?”

Jesus, the Christ, is always with you! Thank you for your kindness and generosity in loving and supporting me during this time as your interim Pastor.

“The love of Christ impels us!”

United with you in that love, with gratitude and love always,

Fr. Joel

Respect for All Life

The Gift of Fatherhood

Father's Day is a time for taking stock of one's fatherhood. What is it that fathers give to their families? 1) Fathers share with their wives the responsibility of providing a secure, loving home for their children. It is important for children to know that they are loved. When a father and mother love and respect each other, children tend to feel more secure, and are more likely to believe that mom and dad love them. 2) Fathers need to develop a strengthened resolve to show a deeper interest in what is important to their wives and children. So, put down the paper, turn off the smart phone, the TV, and the computer, and show a personal interest in the ups and downs of family. 3) Fathers should be involved in all the activities of their families to bear witness to what is truly good in God's eyes—helping them grow in virtue amid the practicalities and stresses of daily life. 4) Fathers play a crucial role in helping their children become men and women of faith by providing good example, e.g., bringing the family to Mass every Sunday. The prayer of St. Francis tells us that "it is in giving that we receive." In giving of themselves in love, husbands and fathers discover what gifts really matter.

Parish Pastoral Council seeks members

The Parish Pastoral Council is a group of parishioners interested in being leaders and representatives of the entire parish. A term on the Council is 3 years: currently the Finance Council representative, the Worship Commission representative, and an At-Large position are open for three year terms, and an unfilled At-Large position is also open, which will run through June of 2017. We are entering upon an exciting time in Council Parish Leadership; the diocesan Pastoral Council is beginning implementation of a 5 year pastoral plan, and new members will be in on the beginnings of that implementation! Please contact the Chair, Barb K, or co-chair Debi S for information about the Parish Pastoral Council. Commitment would begin with the August, 2015 meeting, on the 4th Monday.
