Pope Francis Tweet for the Week!
God's love is free. He asks for nothing in return; all he wants is for his love to be accepted.

To my Family at Christ the Servant,

I very much enjoyed my first weekend here. Thank you for welcoming me so graciously. I look forward to spending time with you.

Peace & Love,

Fr. Bob

Respect for All Life

Freedom—For All We Can Be

Say not: "It was God's doing that I fell away," for what He hates He does not do. Say not: "It was God who set me astray," for He has no need of wicked man. When God, in the beginning, created man, He made him subject to his own free choice. If you choose, you can keep the commandments; it is loyalty to do His will. Set before you are fire and water; to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand. Before man are life and death; whichever he chooses shall be given him...No man does God command to sin, to none does He give strength for lies.

~ "Ecclesiasticus 15:11-12, 14-17, 19-20

God has given us, in our human nature, two great gifts: our intellect to reason and to understand, and our free will to choose. During this Independence Day weekend, let's reflect on the liberty and freedoms we are guaranteed by our U. S. Constitution, and recommit ourselves to know, love, and serve God and others. And let's remember to always ask God—first and foremost—for what we need, and for what He would like us to become.
