SEND OUT YOUR SPIRIT

Last week we heard that, following the Ascension, the disciples, Mary, and other followers of the Lord retreated to the upper room in prayer. This week we hear that, while praying in that room, the Holy Spirit comes upon them. Jesus' post-Resurrection promise, recounted in today's Gospel, is fulfilled: the power of the Holy Spirit comes upon Jesus' followers. Saint Paul tells us that all of us, in some way, are given gifts of the Holy Spirit, gifts that can be used to spread the Good News. Today is one of the Church's greatest festivals. Let us carry the refrain of the responsorial psalm with us throughout the coming week: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!" (Psalm 104:30).

Now that our classes are over for the school year it's time to start thinking about next year. I asked the RF students in grades 1-5 to write to the children who will be entering their grade next year. I'll be sharing some of these here in the bulletin this summer hoping to: get some adults interested in sharing and growing their own faith as catechists; and show everyone that learning about "church stuff" can be FUN!

Respect for All Life

The Catholic Church and Millennials: Partnering with Young Adults (Part I)

From college age and into our mid-30s, we Catholic young adults are passionate, and we still have dreams and fire in our hearts. Unlike generations before, growing up with changing technologies, we've had to be creative, out-of-the-box thinkers, problem solvers, and adapt quickly not only to technology, but to the changing culture as well. And unlike previous generations, we couldn't simply be Catholic just because our parents were Catholic. Due to our culture, our incessant media, and our friends from different faiths, we were forced to question the religion of our parents. We had to learn the questions and find the answers. The passion of young adults means that we're wanting to invest in the Church; we want to help shape the Church. We have a vision believing the Church can always be better. In addition, we come with action steps and practical ideas to get us there. Some of the things we suggest may seem trivial to a 2,000 year old church, such as web-page and app development, graphic design, and social media marketing. Yet we believe that these are integral to evangelization and discipleship in the 21st century.

Parish Giving

The Solemnity of Pentecost celebrates the presence of the Holy Spirit dwelling in us. Stewards, enlivened by the Spirit, continue to live the mission of the Church as disciples of the Risen Christ, by responsible use of what has been entrusted to us.
