Our Mission

Christ the Servant Parish is a welcoming Catholic faith community gathered together to gratefully share and live the Eucharist, the inspiration of the Gospel, the presence of the Holy Spirit, and to follow Christ's example in service of others.

Pope Francis' Tweet for the Week
"Stretch forth your hand to the poor" (Sir 6:7).
Age-old wisdom has proposed these words as a sacred rule to be followed in life .

Please continue to check our parish website www.ctswoodridge.org, and facebook, for up to date information about what we are able to offer to help keep our community connected.

As long as we are not able to gather for mass, Fr. Bob will be recording a mass, and it will be posted at 9 am Sunday on the YouTube channel christtheservant.

Loving God, you give us life.
You nurture and guide us and ask us to call you Father.

Bless our fathers, stepfathers, adoptive fathers,
grandfathers, uncles, priests, friends,
and other men who have helped to father us,
modeling their care
on your own unchanging love and protection.
Teach us to respect and honor them always.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Reflecting on God's Word

"Fear no one," this week's Gospel blithely reminds us (Matthew 10:26). Understood, but also easier said than done.

"Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul" (10:28). Okay, but we tend to grow attached to our bodies and hope to keep them a while longer.

"[D]o not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows" (10:31). But also one sparrow in the hand is worth two in the bush. We tend to go with what we have.

The fact is that most of us are not Jeremiah, who said what he believed even to the point of alienating just about everyone around him. To be Jeremiah can sometimes be just too intimidating. In short, we like our bodies as well as our souls, and so we let our fears get in the way of being the Christians we wish to be.

Nevertheless, every once in a while the Jeremiah strain in each of us does show itself. We speak up for what is right, realizing that if we do not, perhaps no one else will either. And so we say what must be said, maybe not shouting it from the housetops but at least from the porch of the spirit in which our soul dwells. And after we've done so, miracle of miracles, we realize we are no longer afraid.

~Rev. Joseph J. Juknialis

Living God's Word

Sometimes the only way to deal with a fear is to fight through the fear. That has a way of dispelling its power over us. So we find ourselves trying to live by the example of Jesus and trusting in his wisdom.

THIS WEEK'S STEWARDSHIP RECOMMENDATION:

Compost. Food scraps and yard waste together currently make up about 30 percent of what we throw away, so consider composting instead. Making compost keeps these materials out of landfills where they take up space and release methane, a potent greenhouse gas. Your compost can then be used to enrich soil and reduce the need for fertilizer. For convenience, try using an airtight receptacle in your kitchen for interim storage of scraps to reduce trips to your outdoor composter. More info at <https://www.epa.gov/recycle/composting-home>.

EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION STRATEGIES

An Educational Program presented by the Alzheimer's Association and Catholic Charities

When: Wednesday, June 24, 2020, 2-3:30 pm

Platform: Zoom or phone

Register:

Communication is more than just talking and listening—it's also about sending and receiving messages through attitude, tone of voice, and body language. As the disease progresses, individuals living with Alzheimer's or other dementias lose the ability to use words, but families can find new ways to connect.

Join us to explore how communication change when someone is living with Alzheimer's, learn how to interpret the verbal and behavioral communication, and identify strategies to help you connect and communicate at each stage of the disease.

Visit alz.org/CRF to explore additional education programs in your area. Questions? Call Amanda at 815-310-5816.

Catholic Charities is a faith-based organization providing service to people in need and calling others of good will to do the same. This program is provided through the generous support of Rivers Gives.

Respect for All Life

Dad's Big Day— and Influence

"Father's Day is a chance for every man to reflect on his father's legacy—and his own.

We should strive to hand down to our children our most precious possession, the fullness of the Catholic faith. According to researchers, 56% of kids whose relationship with their dad is 'warm and close' will share his degree of religious commitment. If that relationship is weak, the child is 20% less likely to follow his father's faith. In the journal Population Studies, author Eric Sammons observes 'only 2% of kids whose fathers don't practice the faith will end up practicing the faith.' While many studies highlight the significant influence of mothers in other areas, research points to a distinctive edge that dads have on their children's religious outlook. If dads disengage from faith, their kids are prone to dismiss it. This Father's Day—a Father's Day like no other in the confinement of the pandemic—is a fitting time to reflect on our spiritual influence. Living in close family quarters for months, you have a unique opportunity to build a house of prayer and peace, based on an awareness of life's bigger issues. Picking up my dad's Bible recently, I came to a verse, with dark red underlining. 'You are my beloved Son,' he had marked, 'with you I am well pleased.' I stared long and hard at the words and gave thanks for my beloved dad for the legacy he gave me, and for the opportunity I now have to guide my children heavenward."

Many, many thanks!

It's great to be able to offer mass again! It would not be possible without the volunteers who have come forward to help make sure people get checked in and seated in safe patterns, for the ministers lecturing and helping distribute communion, and especially for the set-up and cleaning crews. ALL the people who are helping are critical to keeping our parish safe and open as the pandemic continues.

Not all the volunteers are able to help every week, so we would appreciate having more who can help serve on an occasional basis. We can provide information on the duties of each job, on the job training, and everlasting gratitude.

Contact the parish office (630-910-0770) to be directed to the Team Captain for each of the special reopening jobs. Thank you immensely for considering helping.

Parish Giving

The psalmist assures us that “the Lord hears the poor.” Often, however, He answers their need through the generous gifts of good stewards.

Did you know... it was so nice to have a regular mass schedule last week! We had about half the capacity we are allowed in attendance.

Remember, you are welcome to come to mass as long as you feel safe in doing so. We have some marvelous volunteers helping things go smoothly and stay clean, and could use some more helpers.

Contact the parish office if you can volunteer, even if it's only one week a month.

Leave a Legacy.
